

Documentation Guidelines

Provide disability documentation or a letter on official letterhead from your Qualified Licensed Provider specializing in your disability area that clearly states the following:

- A specific diagnosis
- Functional limitations in an academic setting
- Suggested recommendations for accommodations in an academic setting to minimize the functional limitations

Your documentation can be faxed, mailed, or uploaded to the online application.