

Sonocent Audio-notetaking – Notification to students

Be mindful that instructors generally have a No Cell Phone policy in class. Please ensure that the use of the Sonocent software or companion app do not become a distraction. If your professor feels that you are using your electronic device for something other than an accommodation related purpose, they may ask you to remove the device and will contact ODS with their concerns. Please make sure that your cell phone is in silent mode.