

Onboarding Checklist - Supervisor

Below is a list of items that should to be completed prior to and during employee's first month of employment.

Prior to your Employee's First Day

- Ensure employee understands the IRS tax liability of travel/relocation reimbursement, if applicable.
- If position requires a degree, request that employee has an Official Transcript, confirming their highest degree earned, be sent to HR.
- Complete Employment Authorization \(EA\) (send to HR).
NOTE: Once the EA is approved, HR will draft and send the offer letter to the employee. Once New Hire Paperwork & EA are both completed, HR will send Arrival Notice to UCS to Grant Access.
- Encourage the new employee to complete New Hire Paperwork with HR (see HR Forms Page).
- Confirm agenda for first day and discuss expectations (i.e. work schedule, pay schedule, dress code, etc.).
- Ensure employee's work station and computer are set up.
- Request employee's extension is reset, and obtain Long Distance Code from Telecom (if applicable).
- Provide employee with Campus Map and information about parking.

On Employee's First Day

- Be available when your employee arrives, and throughout their first day for questions they may have.
- Introduce them to co-workers.
- Provide contact information for department personnel and other critical contact information.
- Consider making lunch plans for their first day, invite co-workers to attend (optional).
- Show employee how to use DUO, Portal, WolfWeb, Canvas (if applicable), the online Campus Directory, and other relevant functions on the University's website.
- Request access to applicable Drives and request Banner Access.
- Explain the important procedures for your Unit and critical University policies:
 - How to request time off
 - Who to call if they are sick or late
 - Inclement weather policy, campus closures, late starts (identify essential personnel)
 - Emergency procedures and building evacuation plan
- Verify office procedures including how to request time off.
- Ensure they have access to co-worker's calendars and coordinate daily, weekly schedule including rest periods and lunch break.

(Continued on reverse).

- Take them on a tour of the work unit/building and the campus, to include:
 - Places to eat
 - ATM
 - Restrooms and break rooms
 - Copy/fax areas
 - All other buildings relevant to their position
- Ensure they have received ID card on the 3rd Floor of Human Resources.
- Take employee to Key Shop to obtain office/building keys / Order Name Plate.
- Order Business Cards.
- Explain departmental procedure for ordering office supplies, set up P-card training if needed.
- Issue and discuss position description. Including reviewing process for which their work is evaluated.
- If applicable, show them how to access collective bargaining agreement.

During Your Employee's First Month

- Ensure they've enrolled for benefits within first 30 days.
- View University Organizational chart (see People tab on President's Page)
- Complete Online trainings (i.e. Preventing Workplace Violence, Shots Fired, Hazard Communication).
- Attend New Employee Orientation (NEO).
- Consider assigning a mentor in the Unit/Department to provide support and answer questions.
- Add them to the Department's mailing list, contact list, webpage.
- Update department Organizational Chart, send to HR.
- Provide coaching to recognize and reinforce positive task performance and progress.
- Provide counseling to redirect task performance or correct behavior where or when needed.
- Begin on the job training.
- Send notice to campus about new employee joining your team.