Recruitment #:	S2363
Review Date:	Immediate review Open until filled
Department:	CPP/Student Affairs
Salary Rate:	$49,000 - $52,764

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Assistant Director coordinates and manages experiential learning (EL) programs in CPP, specifically internships, connect events and volunteering. The position provides leadership on promoting best practices, advancing equity and access to EL, streamlining external and internal outreach for EL, spearheads on- and off-campus efforts to raise the profile and number of quality internships for WOU students and increases access for students facing barriers to EL. The position manages up to three student workers, meets with students exploring internships, and provides mentoring to volunteer leaders. Another function of the position is to develop substantial and continuing contacts with business, industry and government representatives and/or recruiters in order to establish meaningful work-learn experiences for WOU students. The position works effectively with students, faculty, staff, alumni and employers.
