About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Technical Records Specialist position will interpret and disseminate federal, state, institutional and Financial Aid Office rules, regulations, policies, and procedures, regarding all financial aid, scholarship, and student work programs that WOU administers, to students, families, WOU staff and the public in daily duties by phone or direct contact. The Technical Records Specialist will provide support for the Student Financial Aid Office through processing, filtering, reporting, researching, and disseminating the data needed to run the weekly student award disbursements. Responsibilities also include downloading and importing all FAFSA/ISIR applications and processing (sending and receiving) electronic ISIR corrections as determined to be necessary after review by the financial aid counseling staff. Additionally, this position processes the Pell and Teach Grants along with Federal Direct Loans and processes origination, maintenance, and disbursement records that are transmitted to the U.S. Department of Education.
