About Western Oregon University:
Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:
The Bursar will oversee the cashier’s, collections, accounts receivable, and financial aid accounting functions of the University. The Bursar leads a department which plays a critical role in administration and student services. The primary role of the Bursar is to maintain the accuracy of student tuition and fee accounts and oversee the billing process to ensure timely and accurate billing statements for students. The Bursar is responsible for reviewing tuition and fees and approving account adjustments and accurate student refunds. In addition, the Bursar will act as cashier for all operational receipts and disbursement of all financial aid funds. As a result, the Bursar will be the expert institutional resource for all student account related policies and procedures as well as compliance with Federal or State guidelines. The Bursar will collaborate with other areas to implement and improve processes and procedures that increase service to students and strengthen administrative operations.

This position is located in the Western Oregon University Office of Accounting and Business Services. The Office of Accounting and Business Services is responsible for the financial management of the institution and processing and reporting for all financial transactions. The operation of the Office directly affects each of the institution’s employees, students, suppliers, student sponsors, some employees of other state agencies, and some members of the public. The Office has thirteen employees, excluding student employees and temporary hires.
