About Western Oregon University:
Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:
The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating and managing the day-to-day responsibilities associated with the university’s Title IX program and compliance obligations. This position is also responsible for the coordination and management of the Bias Incident Reporting. The Title IX Coordinator is the neutral first point of contact for members of our university community and will respond to reports regarding Title IX and bias concerns by coordinating an initial outreach to complainants (students, employees, faculty, and third parties) and ensuring they are provided with information about their rights and resources, process information, and implementing supportive measures, while ensuring thorough documentation and record-keeping. The Title IX Coordinator will serve as the primary case manager. The Title IX Coordinator will lead efforts to create and/or revise policies and procedures in accordance with Federal and State regulations. The Title IX Coordinator will develop, facilitate, coordinate and assess training and professional development. Additionally, they will assist the Executive Director of DEI with DEI office administrative and programming responsibilities.
