About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education, and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Access Services Technician position is responsible for conducting and coordinating, in full collaboration with another Access Services Assistant, all Access program activities. The incumbent works to share library resources with WOU students, faculty, and staff who need them, as well as with other libraries, and to administer all such sharing. The work of the Access Services Assistant is divided equally, roughly, between direct interactions with library patrons, behind-the-scenes tasks, and leadership responsibilities.
