About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education, and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Administrative Program Assistant position resides in the Division of Criminal Justice Sciences (CJS) within the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. CJS delivers its programs at both the Monmouth and Salem campuses through online and face-to-face modalities, with all students engaging in a significant off-campus practicum experience. The focus of the Administrative Program Assistant's (APA) duties will be to support the Criminal Justice program's work in graduate and undergraduate program admissions, academic advising, program assessment, internships and external relationships with alumni and the community along with management of the division office, oversight of the Services & Supplies (S&S) budget and supporting the Division Chair by engaging in administrative projects requiring independent research, analysis, evaluation and interpretation of institutional policy. In addition to the CJS Division Chair, this position also reports to the CLAS Dean's Office and collaborates on special projects as assigned therein.
