About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Recruitment & Retention Advisor will be part of the administrative team in Business and Economics. This position has extensive contact with the public, prospective students, and other campus offices in representing the Division's programs. The purpose of this position is to grow the business program through recruitment, support existing business students through advising and career readiness, and increase retention by supporting student success. This position is located in the Division of Business and Economics, in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. The academic programs which are supported by this position are the majors in Business and Economics. The Division's activities relate to Western Oregon University's (WOU)'s mission by providing excellent educational and professional opportunities to students who will assist government, industry or private enterprise. This role is vital to the navigation, assistance and completion of tenured faculty responsibilities for the department as a whole.
