About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

Child Care Substitutes of Oregon (CCSO) Project Specialists will support the design and development of Oregon’s new statewide substitute child care system and database. CCSO TA & Recruitment Specialists provide technical support to child care staff and child care substitutes through the facilitation of professional development plans and technical assistance support. CCSO Project Specialists work closely with the community while delivering training applicable for onboarding substitute providers, enrolling new programs into the substitute system, etc. CCSO Project Specialists provide support to the substitute child care system by actively developing recruitment strategies and engaging the community across the state to recruit substitutes and enroll new providers into the system.

CCSO Project Specialists will focus on recruitment and retainment through community and relationship building with partners, including but not limited to: State and Community Colleges, the Department of Early Learning and Care, and Childcare Licensing Division. Due to the nature of scheduling training for childcare substitutes, occasional weekend or evening hours may be required. This position may involve significant in-state travel. Bilingual staff may be asked to use both languages across all duties and activities as needed.
