Recruitment #:	S2434
Review Date:	Immediate review Open until filled
Department:	The Research Institute
Salary Rate:	$73,150 - $84,488

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Essential Fellowship (EF) Project Coordinator works with the Child Care Resource and Referral team to implement, design and support EF practices within CCR&R staff regionally. The Coordinator oversees planning, development and implementation of high-quality cultural response and equitable EF cohorts and addresses specific Oregon system functions to enhance and ensure CCR&R see their role in the curriculum. The coordinator will work on evaluating needs and work with project specialists and EF authorized trainers to support strong implementation practices. The EF Project Coordinator is responsible for ensuring that data to support Essential Fellowship is collected, managed, and reported responsibly. The EF Project Coordinator provides culturally responsive supervision to staff on their supervision load.
