About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Department of Theatre & Dance at Western Oregon University seeks a passionate and experienced expert in acting to join our vibrant faculty in Creative Arts. We are committed to fostering a student-centered environment where future theatre professionals and educators can develop their artistic talents and pedagogical skills. WOU has a rich history of liberal arts and teacher education, and is an emerging Hispanic-Serving Institution. A significant portion of our Theatre majors study in the Theatre Education concentration to become middle or high school teachers.

In this exciting role, you will:

- Develop and teach undergraduate courses in acting: You will tailor courses to prepare students both for professional production work and for integrating acting effectively into middle and high school theatre programs. This includes introductory and advanced courses, potentially encompassing areas like:
  - Play Reading
  - Elements of Acting (Acting I)
  - Acting II
  - Movement (Movement & Voice)
  - Speech I (IPA)
  - Acting for the Camera
  - Acting Styles
  - Shakespeare I & II
  - General Education classes (Introduction to Theatre; Introduction to Film)
  - Other possible topics within the candidate’s area of expertise
- Direct: You will serve as director for one mainstage production per year.
- Mentor and guide students: Provide individualized support to students throughout their academic journey, helping them refine their acting skills, cultivate their artistic voices, and gain the confidence to become inspiring practitioners and educators.

- Collaborate: Work with designers, technical staff, student workers, and other personnel in a collaborative environment. Attend production meetings and rehearsals.
- Contribute to the growth of our BFA in Theatre Education: Work with faculty to develop a robust program that equips future teachers with the knowledge and skills to create engaging and effective theatre experiences for students of all backgrounds.
- Help recruit students: Promote the Theatre program at Thespian conferences and events for prospective students. Cultivate partnerships with local schools and teachers.

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Acting or a closely related field
- Portfolio of experience in acting

Preferred:

- Terminal degree (MFA or PhD) in Theatre or related field.
- Professional experience in acting.
- Directing experience.
- Teaching experience, especially at the college level.
- Commitment to a student-centered approach to teaching that fosters creativity, critical thinking, and collaboration.
- Enthusiasm for working within a culturally diverse environment and supporting the success of Hispanic, LGBTQIA+, and first generation college students.
- Excellent communication, collaboration, and interpersonal skills.
- Experience or interest in theatre education at the middle and high school levels is a plus.
- Fluency in Spanish is a plus.

This is a non-tenure track position with a potential for renewal based on performance and departmental needs. Teaching and theatre production activities are expected to total 0.8 to 1.0 FTE in fall, winter, and spring quarters. Summer opportunities may be possible separately.

Position title is based on the candidate's highest degree completed:

- Bachelor's Degree: Lecturer
- Master's Degree: Instructor
- Terminal Degree (MFA or PhD): Non-Tenure Track Assistant Professor

In your application materials, we encourage you to highlight your approach to fostering creativity in the classroom and during productions, and your vision for how acting can enhance theatre education for all students.

Required Application materials: You may submit all materials online at www.wou.edu/prostaffapp
