Recruitment #: S2448
Review Date: Immediate review | Open until filled
Department: Clinical Practice & Licensure
Salary Rate: $40,008 - $47,345

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education, and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 41% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Education Advisor serves the Division of Education and Leadership and current and future education majors by providing initial information about program requirements, including coursework, experiences and dispositions necessary to become an effective educator. The Education Advisor works as a team member with other education advisors, the academic programs in the Division of Education and Leadership, the Office of Clinical Practice, and within the structures of the College of Education. The Education Advisor will also collaborate with and coordinate support services with community college partners to effectively serve future WOU education majors currently enrolled at community colleges.
