About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 41% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Department of Theatre & Dance at Western Oregon University seeks a passionate and experienced expert in scenic design to join our vibrant faculty in Creative Arts. We are committed to fostering a student-centered environment where future theatre professionals and educators can develop their artistic talents and pedagogical skills. WOU has a rich history of liberal arts and teacher education and is an emerging Hispanic-Serving Institution. A significant portion of our Theatre majors study in the Theatre Education concentration to become middle or high school teachers.

In this exciting role, you will:

- Create scenic designs: WOU Theatre is a vital component of campus culture, public outreach, and student activities. You will design scenery for three mainstage and one or more studio productions per year. Oversee properties, set dressing and furniture as needed for each production.
- Collaborate: Work with directors, designers, technical director, events manager and student workers in a collaborative environment. Design scenery that fits the needs of the production, the production budget, and the abilities and educational needs of the student technicians and carpenters. Oversee student designers or assistant designers as needed. Execute or oversee scenic painting; assist with lighting design, light hang and focus sessions; program or oversee programming of lighting cues. Attend all design meetings, production meetings, and technical rehearsals.
- Teach undergraduate courses in technical theatre: You will tailor courses to prepare students both for professional production work and for integrating design into middle and high school theatre programs. This includes introductory and advanced courses, potentially encompassing areas like:
 - Scenecraft
 - Lighting & Sound
 - Scenic Painting
 - Lighting Design
 - Other possible topics within the candidate’s area of expertise

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree with a scenic design emphasis or a closely related field
- Portfolio of experience in scenic design

Preferred:

- Terminal degree (MFA) in scenic design for Theatre or related field.
- Professional experience in scenic design and lighting design.
- Teaching experience, especially at the college level.
- Commitment to a student-centered approach to teaching that fosters creativity, critical thinking, and collaboration.
- Enthusiasm for working within a culturally diverse environment and supporting the success of Hispanic, LGBTQIA+, and first-generation college students.
- Excellent communication, collaboration, and interpersonal skills.
- Proficiency using digital design software (e.g., AutoCAD, SketchUp, Adobe Creative Cloud applications).
- Fluency in Spanish is a plus.

This is a non-tenure track position with a potential for renewal based on performance and departmental needs. Teaching and theatre production activities are expected to total 0.8 to 1.0 FTE in fall, winter, and spring quarters. Summer opportunities may be possible separately.

Position title is based on the candidate's highest degree completed:

- Bachelor's Degree: Lecturer
- Master's Degree: Instructor
- Terminal Degree (MFA or PhD): Non-Tenure Track Assistant Professor

In your application materials, we encourage you to highlight your approach to fostering creativity in the classroom and during productions, and your vision for how theatrical design can enhance theatre education for all students.
