About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 41% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Patient Care Provider at Western Oregon University's Student Health Center will conduct thorough assessments of all students seeking medical care, delivering primary healthcare services, treatment, and appropriate referrals to ensure comprehensive care and support for our student community

The Student Health and Counseling Center, as a division of Student Affairs, provides medical care, sexual health services, mental health counseling, wellness education, prevention, and referral services for students enrolled at Western Oregon University. The mission of the Student Health and Counseling Center is to facilitate the health and well-being of WOU students by providing quality and affordable outpatient care in an affirming, respectful, and compassionate environment.

The Student Health and Counseling Center is committed to providing an open, affirming, and inclusive environment for all WOU students. We invite students of all backgrounds to utilize our services with an expectation of receiving respectful and compassionate treatment. Discrimination in the areas of race, gender, sexual/affectional orientation, physical and mental ability, age, socio-economic status, and/or religious/spiritual belief is inconsistent with our mission and will not be reflected in the policies and procedures of this department.
