About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 41% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Assistant Athletic Director for Facilities and Game Operations oversees all aspects of event management and monitors all athletic facilities, recommending maintenance, repair, and renovation, in coordination with the university facilities department. This person will serve as the primary game administrator for all home athletic events. Responsibilities will include but are not limited to communicating with officials and game staff; coordinating game day logistics and set-up/break-down; and greeting game officials. Management responsibilities include supervision, training, hiring, and scheduling of part-time and student employees serving at the facilities in both daily and event positions, overseeing daily team usage of the facilities and managing event coordination for athletic contests and special events at the facilities. Athletics staff are expected to maintain a professional appearance and demeanor, and uphold Western Oregon University policies and procedures, including but not limited to Title IX and FERPA.
