About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 41% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

The Assistant Director of Scholarships will focus on the coordination of the WOU scholarship and award programs (Foundation and fee remission awards) along with state grants and scholarships and private third party scholarships. This position is responsible for managing key aspects of the online scholarship management software, steering the General Scholarship committee, assigning scholarship awards based on the scholarship committee member's rankings and preparing award letters for those students. The AD of Scholarships is responsible for overseeing the proper awarding and reconciliation of approximately $6.5 million in private and institutional funds annually. The Assistant Director of Scholarships must have both broad and detailed knowledge of the policies and procedures for administering federal and state financial aid, in accordance with federal, state, and institutional regulations and policies. The AD of Scholarships may be called upon to perform duties typically assigned to a Financial Aid Counselor during times of peak financial aid file processing to ensure timely delivery of aid to students.
