Recruitment #: S2426
Review Date: Immediate review | Open until filled
Department: The Research Institute
Salary Rate: $56,783 - $69,840

About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities, and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon’s lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state’s capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state’s cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon’s oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It’s known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 37% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

Regional Child Care Educators, Child Care Substitutes of Oregon

Regional Child Care Educators Providers will respond to the continuing employment needs of child care providers in the Central Willamette Valley as they will be sent out to different child care facilities that may include registered and certified family child care homes, and certified child care centers to provide quality coverage for child care staff that have planned time off. Regional Child Care Educators are being hired by Child Care Substitutes of Oregon (CCSO), a program that falls under The Research Institute at Western Oregon University (WOU). Regional Child Care Educators are expected to use culturally responsive, innovative best practices across a variety of duties including engagement with children and families, collaboration and support within a child care team, and professional development. Participation in this position requires engagement in continual learning in anti-racism, equity, diversity, inclusion and outreach in order to cultivate equitable practices across all aspects of position duties and participate and engage in efforts to further develop and implement the center, projects and university’s equity work and goals.

Bilingual staff may be asked to use both languages across duties and activities as needed. Bilingual staff will provide translation and interpretation in a culturally responsive manner as needed for this position.

Regional Child Care Educators, Child Care Substitutes of Oregon

Regional Child Care Educators in this position will be providing the majority of their services to general child care sites, but may be asked to provide substitute services throughout the Central Willamette Valley to any child care group if necessary/applicable. Regional Child Care providers will work closely with community early childhood education providers, their staff, and the Child Care Substitutes of Oregon team. Regional Child Care Educators will report to the Project Coordinator to engage in scheduling, communication, feedback, and professional development. Due to the nature of child care program hours, occasional weekend or evening hours may be available. This position will involve significant travel within the Central Willamette Valley. Work schedule varies, this is a hybrid position, the expectation of travel and coverage will vary depending on location and needs of the child care programs. If not working in a child care program, you are expected to work from home.
