About Western Oregon University:

Western Oregon University is a regional public, mid-sized university – committed to changing lives, strengthening communities and transforming our world. Located in Monmouth, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley, WOU is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital and about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub.

Western is one of Oregon's oldest public institutions of higher education and was incorporated into the state system as a teacher training institution in 1882. The university offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in arts and sciences, education and professional areas. It's known for small class sizes, a focus on sustainability and a diverse liberal arts education in a student-centered environment. Western is an emerging Hispanic Serving institution, with 41% of undergraduates being students of color.

Position Summary:

Reporting to the Assistant Provost for Enrollment Management and Student Success in the Division of Academic Affairs, the Director of Undergraduate Admissions plans, develops, implements, and evaluates a comprehensive student recruitment and admission program designed to inform prospective students of the academic programs and services at Western Oregon University. The Director of Admissions has budget management, oversight, and resource allocation responsibilities, supervises the admissions staff team, and serves as an active leader in the division of Academic Affairs.

Western Oregon University provides visa support exclusively for Tenure Track employees in specialized positions with ongoing, long-term university appointments. This position does not qualify as specialized and is, therefore, not eligible for visa support.
