

Tenure Track Position Request
Spring 2019 Requests for Fall 2020 Start

Faculty position requests for 2019-20 searches, with anticipated start date of September 16, 2020 will be reviewed through the lens of student enrollment growth and retention, with a focus on areas where cross-disciplinary conversations among faculty have identified and developed new programmatic directions that leverage faculty talents across departments, divisions and colleges. Submit the completed form to appropriate dean by April 26th, 2019 (4th week of spring quarter).

Division: _____

Department / Program: _____

Area(s) of specialty: _____

Is this a replacement search? If so, what is the name of the previous faculty member and when did they fully retire? Yes No Name of retiree: _____ Fully retired date: _____

How would the faculty member contribute to degree programs (e.g., courses taught, curriculum development, advising, interdisciplinary collaboration)?

What strategic initiatives and goals does this position support at the department/program, division, college, and/or university level?

What are the advantages and disadvantages of filling this position with an NTT faculty member?

Division Chair Signature: _____ Date: _____

For Dean (Please use the common data file, provided by Institutional Research)

How many T/TT faculty are in the department/program? _____

How many annualized NTT FTE are in the department/program? _____

Total FTE (T/TT plus NTT) _____

Proportion of FTE that is TT (TT FTE / Total FTE): _____

How many annualized NTTs have multiple year contracts in the department/program? _____

Please include data from past five years

	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5
--	--------	--------	--------	--------	--------

Total UG Majors _____

Total Graduates (UG) _____

Total Graduates (G) _____

UG SCH for Department _____

G SCH for Department _____

Total UG Minors _____

Beyond the above, data what are some other factors that should be considered when making decisions about this request?