

SALEM TEACHING OPPORTUNITIES

Now that we have secured space at the Willamette Education Service District's Professional Learning Center – 2611 Pringle SE in Salem -- to launch WOU:Salem in January, it's time to start planning in earnest for the delivery of Salem-based undergraduate programs in 2019-20 and going forward.

To provide a sense of the scale of projected operations, here is what we tentatively plan through 2021-22. Areas of need addressed in this email are highlighted.

	2019-20	2020-21	2021-22
Days per week	3	4	5
Rooms per night (5:30, 7:30) + Saturday (9, 11)	3	4 on evenings, 3 on Saturday	4
Target sections	18	30	40
• General Education	5	9	12
• AB in Liberal Studies/Free Electives	5	6	7
• Business	2	3	3
• Criminal Justice	2	3	3
• Psychology	0	1	2
• MA in Org Leadership	2	2	2
• Certificate in Professional Writing	1	1	2
• Other programs in Salem	1*	5	9

*This course is already identified. In 2020-21 and 2021-22, we anticipate room for additional programs to deliver in Salem.

We have already worked with some programs: In some cases, faculty brought program ideas to us, and in other cases we approached programs where there seemed to be a good fit with needs and opportunities in Salem. There remain many opportunities to participate in the Salem-based work with planned expansion in offerings in the next three years.
