4 ARTICLE 22: FACULTY DEVELOPMENT

5 Section 1. The purpose of the Faculty Development Committee is to provide a peer review process for the
6 allocation of funds for scholarly and creative faculty activities. Scholarly and creative activities are assigned
7 duties/responsibilities of faculty members and are used as measures of faculty member’s performance for
8 awarding promotion and tenure (see Articles 7 and 8).
9

10 Section 2. The Committee shall consist of faculty representatives from all divisions. Divisions that have 11 twenty members or more are entitled to two (2) representatives. Ex-officio members of the Committee will 12 include the Provost or his/her designees.
13

14 Section 3. Each Division will elect at their first Fall Quarter divisional meeting a representative or 15 representatives. Members of the Committee will serve three (3) year terms. One third of the Committee will 16 be elected each year.
17

18 Section 4. The Faculty Development Committee Chair will be elected by the Committee from those 19 members who are serving the second of a three-year term. Ex-officio members are not eligible for the 20 position of Committee Chair.
21

22 Section 5. The responsibilities of the Committee include:

23
24 A. The allocation of resources for:

25
26 1. Scholarly and creative activities including:

27
28 a. Participation in professional meetings, workshops, or similar events, with a
29 professional audience and related to research or teaching/librarianship, including
30 related/justified travel.
31

32 b. Professional development/enhancement opportunities, including online
33 opportunities, focused on improving the faculty member’s professional expertise in 34 an area directly related to their teaching/librarianship or research, including
35 related/justified travel.
36

37 c. Project grants for research/creative activities including equipment and 38 related/justified travel.
39

40 2. Teaching reassigned time for research and/or scholarly activities or for preparation of or
41 revision of technologically innovative courses as outlined in Article 7.
42

43 B. Identification and consolidation of any additional funding sources.
44

45 C. Informing the faculty of availability of resources and the process for applying for them in advance of 46 application deadlines.
