

Hall Gov
January 8th, 2018

Begin: 7:14pm
End: 7:45pm

- We began today's meeting by talking about one another's highs and lows during break, the majority of us was working.
- We have two new opened positions and discussed how we need to create flyers in order to recruit new members
- We are trying to create new activity ideas and one was a Super Bowl party. We also mentioned that Valentine's Day is coming up and we might do an event on that. Sarah said: Nope on the Valentine's Day idea and I feel like most of our hall gov can agree with her
- We need two proxies for the RHA meeting, Peter and Jonathan volunteered to go this week
- Joe Han was able to tell us about the residents gpa's and mentioned that Barnum did do better than Landers residents. He suggested that we maybe should do an event on academics for our residents.
- Maddie will be the one sending us an email with her new flyer idea and Jess will send it to all the residents.
- We are talking about new ways of advertising for events and we were thinking that door tagging would be an awesome idea.
- Jess mentioned that Dodge your professor is coming up and that we should all go because it'll be lots of fun.

- Maddie moves to adjourn meeting and Hannah seconds that, this passes 8-0-0 and the meeting has now ended at 7:45
