8) Pro/Delta

a) Gold Rush

- i) Pros: great participation, well-received, parents came, fun, adaptability, we could do it in the future, saloon was great.
- ii) Cons: wish we had more prizes/candy/food, lost potatoes, people started early, start with posters with point systems, advertising that single people should play not groups.
- iii) Bridget - Potatoes will most likely decompose in a landfill unless we can talk to Physical Plant.
- iv) Wenyin - Next year what if we had bracelets for participators, so that they need the bracelet before they can start the program.

- v) Carter - Shoutout to Alex for the great Saloon music.
- vi) Bridget - Maybe we can do it again spring term!

9) New Business

a) Spring Committees

- i) Brandon - There are 5 committees, 2 of which have already been formed: induction committee and visibility and recruitment committee. But we also the selection committee, the constitution committee, and the budget committee. First we need to know who all is returning to be on campus and in NRHH next year/
- ii) Regan, Eliza, Alex, Morgan, and Jeremy raised their hands.
- iii) Brandon - We need to know this because the selection committee needs 2 returning NRHH members.

Visibility and Recruitment Committee Members: D-Dre, Natalie, Rachel, Eliza, Alex, Gus, Kaiana, Brandon

Induction Committee Members: Gus, Kaiana, Morgan, Natalie, Carter, D-Dre

Selection Committee Members: Natalie, Brandon, Morgan, Rachel, Jeremy, Laura, Carter

Constitution Committee Members: Brandon, Natalie, Laura, Jeremy, Eliza, Wenyin

Budget Committee Members: Rachel, Brandon, Laura, Regan, Carter, Gus

b) Trash night update

- i) Brandon - Update on trash nights is that we have 3 Residence Halls for Tuesday night and we need more volunteers.
- ii) Gus and Jeremy volunteer to help on Tuesday.

c) NRHH Representative elections next week

- i) Brandon - We'll have elections for NRHH Rep next week and I'll send out information on the position tonight for you all to look over.

10) Committee Time (Visibility and OTM)

11) Committee Updates

a) Visibility Committee

- i) D-Dre - Since Induction and Selection is coming up, we're going to do Wanted Posters for our bulletin board and information about nominations with emails if people have questions. This week we chose to focus on Student Engagement because they're working hard to fundraise for the food drive for the governor. Are people on board for that?
- ii) Lots of people - yes!
- iii) D-Dre - Who is the head of Student Engagement?
- iv) Carter - Patrick Moser.

- v) D-Dre - I will go to the info desk and get information sometime soon then about Student Engagement.
- b) NRHM Committee
  - i) Rachel - Right now is Advocacy Week! The advocacy boxes are out and will be for the rest of the month, and posters went out today in the halls. We're also doing recognition door tags next week, but we're thinking of doing Heritage and Ackerman on Monday. We also need Landers-Barnum and Arbor.
  - ii) D-Dre and Wenyin - We can do Barnland Monday.
  - iii) Jeremy and Eliza - We can do Arbor Tuesday.
- c) OTM Committee
  - i) Bridget - We decided to do a pancake bar in Ackerman before GA on February 28th.

12) Representative Time

- a) Bridget - Wolf of the Week is Rachel for her hard work on NRHM! Upcoming programs are 80 snacks around the world, karaoke and kravings, and an escape room.

13) Recognition Corner

- a) In Chapter: Will be determined next week.
- b) Outside group: Student Engagement!

14) ASWOU Update

- a) Eliza - We're going over 3 pieces of legislation tonight!

15) Hall Government Updates

- a) Brenda - We're trying to program our feature right now.

16) Advisor's Time

- a) Laura - There's midnight movies tomorrow, next Friday at 7pm there is mini golf in the WUC, and we've sent out nominations to everyone for NRHH so make sure you're nominating people! There's also nominations for Leadership Recognition Night that should go out tomorrow.

17) QCC's

- a) Eliza - NACURH applications are out! Fill one out if you're interested!
